Graveyard Over ten years ago an opportunity was given to parishioners and those with strong connections with the Parish to purchase unspecified single plots in St. Patrick's cemetery. The cemetery is reaching full capacity. We therefore ask any Parishioner who has or has knowledge of anyone who has such a plot to contact the Parish Office urgently and in any event before the 1st July 2018 and provide a copy of the receipt. We will do our best to prioritise those people for the remaining plots in St. Patrick's. The original offer was clearly made subject to supply. We would however give an assurance that if anyone holding such a receipt is to come forward after the final plot is released in St. Patrick's they will be accommodated in any future extension of the cemetery.

Dromore Diocesan Historical Society Field Trip Sunday 17th June to the elevated farm of Colin & Anne McMahon, Charlestown Road, Derrytagh South, Derrytrasna. The field trip will be led by Frank McCorry, who will talk about the recent discovery of a hidden and forgotten burial ground close-by and a major early 19th century engineering project planned by Scottish engineer Alexander Nimmo. Talk begins at 2:30pm. Refreshments provided. All welcome.

Archaeological Excavations June 2017: Dr Cormac McSparron of Queen's University Belfast will be giving a talk on the findings of the Archaeological dig in Aghagallon on Tuesday 19th June 2018 at 7.30pm in the Main Hall at Aghagallon Community Centre. All are welcome to attend.

*Dear God, Thank you for today,
yesterday and tomorrow;
my family, my joys, my sorrows;
for all that made stronger.*
Amen
